These three little girls (pictured below) attend the Bethlehem Creche—a day centre in a slum area of the capital Colombo. Sr Florella, a Catholic nun, goes out to the Bazaar area to collect food and donations so the kids can have a hot meal each day. They are all from single parent families. Their Mums work as domestics or in labouring jobs. Their daily income is less than $3 per day. These girls are delighted with their new clothes and toys together with a small bag of other goodies. Their Mums really appreciate your kindness and help in bringing some Christmas cheer. A 'little' for us means so much more if you are poor and there is no social security or other assistance!

You can make a difference ... and bring some relief to a child like Nishan (the young lad in the photo). He is so happy to have his very own tennis ball and can play in the street with the other children from his small village. For the past 14 years Network Heaven has assisted underprivileged children like Nishan by sending a customized gift parcel at Christmas. The contents include a set of new clothes, toiletry items, school stationery, a small novelty item and a lolly bag. These items seem very basic to us, but for a poor child from Sri Lanka (a 3rd world country) it's of huge benefit. Most of the children we assist only have one parent and live in the community. A small number are in orphanages. Many have lost their Fathers because of the war and others have simply disappeared or are disabled. Their Mums struggle to feed the children so, the gift parcel has a huge impact. This year we have around 1,300 children on our books. Each recipient of a parcel can start the new school year knowing they have some of the basic items that are needed. Gifts are distributed by local partners to children of all races and religions without discrimination. Clothing for girls age 8 and above is made by volunteers in Sydney to suit cultural norms. Boys clothes needs to be purchased wholesale or donated by individuals. See the list of other items needed on reverse side. If you would like to help one or more of these children contact Anne via email at : anne_salvador@yahoo.com or on 9451 0906 after 8pm on week days.

Did you know ?? We recycle 'small' transistor radios, unlocked mobile phones and give them to people who put them to good use!

Note: they must be in working order. Battery charger should also be included. The phones are very useful for people trying to run a small business and the radios bring a lot of joy to the senior citizens who are cut off from the outside world!

RECYCLE 'OBSOLETE' PROMOTIONAL GIFTS

Caps, tote bags, backpacks, satchels, polo shirts, clocks, lanyards, pens, drink bottles, umbrellas, usb's, torches, rulers, notebooks, calculators, compendiums etc
